1 Instances where we may ask for proof of your identity

- When you transfer your benefits from other funds to your Australian Catholic Superannuation account,
- When you transfer your benefits from Australian Catholic Superannuation to a Self Managed Super Fund,
- When you apply for an early release of your entitlement or when you claim your super on retirement,
- When you advise us of a change in your personal details, such as changing your name,
- When applying for Power of Attorney,
- When commencing and/or making a withdrawal from your RetireChoice or RetireSmart Pension account, and
- When paying a death benefit to an approved beneficiary/legal person.

2 Proving your identity

To prove your identity, you will need to provide Australian Catholic Superannuation with:

Either

ONE copy of any one of the following:

- A current driver's licence
- A current passport
- Proof of age card

Or

ONE copy of any one of the following:

- Birth certificate or extract
- Citizenship certificate
- Centrelink pension card

ONE copy of the following:

- Centrelink payment letter
- Government or local council payment notice (less than one year old) clearly showing your name and residential address
- Notice issued by a utilities provider (less than one year old) clearly showing your name and residential address

i We may request further forms of identification if any of your details differ to what we have on file or if you are changing or adding a new bank account to our records.

3 Certifying your identification documents is a three-step process

i Your Certified ID will be valid for a maximum of two years unless it expires prior and family members cannot certify your identification.

1 Collect your original documents.

We have provided a list of the documents above that you can use to prove your identity.

2 Photocopy your original documents.

You will need one set of documents for your request. If you are transferring super from another fund into Australian Catholic Superannuation, you will need to provide one set of documents for each transferring fund.

3 Certify your copies.

Take the copies and your original documents to be certified. We have supplied a full list of people authorised to certify your documents on the back of this fact sheet. Each page must have 'certified true copy' stamped or written on it and must include the certifier's signature, printed name, qualification, contact phone number and the date.

4 Certification must be on the same page as your identification.

Ensure the person certifying your document certifies it on the same page as your identification. We will not accept certification on the back page.

John CITIZEN has provided a copy of his identification that includes signature, full name, date of birth and current residential address.

The authorised person has sighted the original identification and confirmed that the copy is a certified true copy.

"I certify that this document is a true copy of the original."

K Anderson

Details for the authorised person are included: full name, qualification, registration number (if applicable), phone number, date and signature.

Name: Karen Anderson
Qualification: JP
Registration no: 123456
Date: 30 August 2020
Phone number: 02 1234 5678

What is a certified document? A certified document is a copy of an original proof of identification document that has been signed and certified as a true and correct copy of the original. Only authorised people can certify a document. See the back of this fact sheet for a full list.

Payer information

The following information will help you comply with your pay as you go (PAYG) withholding obligations.

— Is your employee entitled to work in Australia?

It is a criminal offence to knowingly or recklessly allow someone to work, or to refer someone for work, where that person is from overseas and is either in Australia illegally or is working in breach of their visa conditions.

People or companies convicted of these offences may face fines and/or imprisonment. To avoid penalties, ensure your prospective employee has a valid visa to work in Australia before you employ them. For more information and to check a visa holder's status online, visit the Department of Immigration and Border Protection website at border.gov.au

Is your payee working under a working holiday visa (subclass 417) or a work and holiday visa (subclass 462)?

Employers of workers under these two types of visa need to register with the ATO, see ato.gov.au/whmreg

For the tax table "working holiday maker" visit our website at ato.gov.au/taxtables

Payer obligations

If you withhold amounts from payments, or are likely to withhold amounts, the payee may give you this form with section A completed. A TFN declaration applies to payments made after the declaration is provided to you. The information provided on this form is used to determine the amount of tax to be withheld from payments based on the PAYG withholding tax tables we publish. If the payee gives you another declaration, it overrides any previous declarations.

Has your payee advised you that they have applied for a TFN, or enquired about their existing TFN?

Where the payee indicates at question 1 on this form that they have applied for an individual TFN, or enquired about their existing TFN, they have 28 days to give you their TFN. You must withhold tax for 28 days at the standard rate according to the PAYG withholding tax tables. After 28 days, if the payee has not given you their TFN, you must then withhold the top rate of tax from future payments, unless we tell you not to.

If your payee has not given you a completed form you must:

- notify us within 14 days of the start of the withholding obligation by completing as much of the payee section of the form as you can. Print 'PAYER' in the payee declaration and lodge the form – see 'Lodging the form'.
- withhold the top rate of tax from any payment to that payee.

- For a full list of tax tables, visit our website at ato.gov.au/taxtables

Lodging the form

You need to lodge TFN declarations with us within 14 days after the form is either signed by the payee or completed by you (if not provided by the payee). You need to retain a copy of the form for your records. For information about storage and disposal, see below.

You may lodge the information:

- online – lodge your TFN declaration reports using software that complies with our specifications. There is no need to complete section B of each form as the payer information is supplied by your software.
- by paper – complete section B and send the original to us within 14 days.

- For more information about lodging your TFN declaration report online, visit our website at ato.gov.au/lodgetfndeclaration

Provision of payee's TFN to the payee's super fund

If you make a super contribution for your payee, you need to give your payee's TFN to their super fund on the day of contribution, or if the payee has not yet quoted their TFN, within 14 days of receiving this form from your payee.

Storing and disposing of TFN declarations

The TFN Rule issued under the Privacy Act 1988 requires a TFN recipient to use secure methods when storing and disposing of TFN information. You may store a paper copy of the signed form or electronic files of scanned forms. Scanned forms must be clear and not altered in any way.

If a payee:

- submits a new TFN declaration (NAT 3092), you must retain a copy of the earlier form for the current and following financial year.
- has not received payments from you for 12 months, you must retain a copy of the last completed form for the current and following financial year.

— Penalties

You may incur a penalty if you do not:

- lodge TFN declarations with us
- keep a copy of completed TFN declarations for your records
- provide the payee's TFN to their super fund where the payee quoted their TFN to you.
